

Dr. Murray Berkowitz is the owner and founder of Alpharetta Osteopathic Health LLC, a general osteopathic medical practice. He was recently in private practice at Einstein Genius Care and Alpharetta Medical Associates in Alpharetta, Georgia. He spent almost 15 years teaching medicine, including over three years as the Associate Dean responsible for all clinical education. Dr. Berkowitz was most recently a tenured full Professor of Neuromusculoskeletal Medicine and Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine at the Georgia Campus of the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine in Suwanee, GA. He has also had private osteopathic medicine practice in Arlington, Virginia and Annapolis, Maryland and years of military service. Dr. Berkowitz is a disabled veteran and is a medically retired Army Lieutenant Colonel (LTC) due to service-connected combat-related disabilities. He was a military aviator and parachutist and also holds the Master Space Badge and the Office of the Secretary of Defense Identification Badge. Dr. Berkowitz is a published author and speaker with over 100 manuscripts, papers, and presentations. He has actively consulted in the areas of Bioinformatics and Medical Informatics, as well as the design of Computer Systems Architectures and Database Systems. He consults in the areas of General Preventive Medicine and Public Health, Occupational Medicine, Emergency and Disaster Planning, and has been a speaker at national and regional Medical Conferences.